ANALOG DEVICES, INC.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2-05CV-184-TJW

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

BIAX CORPORATION'S FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION TO INTEL CORPORATION

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 and 36, Plaintiff BIAx Corporation hereby requests that defendant Intel Corporation ("Intel") answer the following Requests for Admission ("RFA") separately and fully within 30 day of service. These Requests for Admission are continuing and responses to these Requests for Admission should be supplemented as required by Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. You are to provide full and complete responses to the following requests after conducting a diligent and thorough investigation into all information within your possession, custody, or control. If you cannot provide a full and complete response to any request, you should respond to the request to the extent possible, specifying the portion of the request you are unable to answer and providing whatever information you have regarding the unanswered portion.

ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY

2. The term "documents" includes all things within the meaning and scope of that term as used in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Federal Rules of Evidence, and includes without limitation the following items, whether printed, recorded, microfilmed, stored electronically or optically, or reproduced by any process, or written or produced by hand, or recorded in any other way, and whether or not claimed to be privileged or confidential or personal: letters; correspondence; memoranda; notes; reports; records; agreements; working papers; communications (including intradepartmental and interdepartmental communications); summaries or records of personal conversations; calendars; diaries; forecasts; statistical statements; graphs; laboratory or research reports and notebooks; charts; minutes or records of conferences; expressions or statements of policy; lists of persons attending meetings or conferences; reports of or summaries of interviews; reports of or summaries of investigations; opinions or reports of consultants; patents and patent application materials; patent appraisals; printed publications; trademark applications, certificates of registration, opinions of counsel; memoranda of agreements, assignments, licenses; reports of or summaries of either negotiations within or without the corporation or preparations for such; bulletins; material and manufacturing specifications; material packaging; manufacturing logs; functional specifications; equipment specifications and operating information; product packaging; designs; logic simulation or emulation materials; instructions; advertisements; literature; work assignments; memoranda of conversations; notes; notebooks; drafts; data sheets; worksheets; contracts; memoranda of agreements; assignments; licenses; minute books of account; orders; invoices; statements; bills; checks; vouchers; photographs; drawings; charts; catalogs; brochures; computer files; computer discs; articles; manuals; pamphlets; knowledge base documents; technical support documents; application notes; advertisements; circulars; press releases; drafts of any documents; books; instruments; accounts; bills of sale; tapes; electronic communications including but not limited to E-mails; telegraphic communications and all other material of any tangible medium of expression; and original or preliminary notes. Any comment or notation appearing on any document, and not a part of the original text, is to be considered a separate "document."

3. Any response made by reference to documents shall identify by litigation document control number each responsive document.

4. "Date" means the exact day, month, and year if ascertainable, or if not, your best approximation thereof.

5. The terms "person" and "persons" include both natural persons and entities (including corporations, proprietorships, partnerships, associations, joint ventures, governmental agencies, and other entities, and any combination thereof, and all predecessors in interest, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries, and related entities).

6. The term "communication" means every manner or method of the disclosure, transfer, or exchange of information, whether orally, electronically, or by document, and whether face to face or by telephone, mail, facsimile, E-mail, Internet communication, or otherwise.

7. The terms "and," "or," and "and/or" shall be construed in the conjunctive or the disjunctive, whichever makes the request more inclusive.

8. All pronouns shall be construed to refer to the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender, in singular or plural, as in each case makes the request more inclusive.

9. The terms "you" and "your" refer collectively to Intel Corporation ("Intel"), its predecessors in interest, subsidiaries, joint ventures, affiliates, and other legal entities that are wholly or partially owned or controlled by Intel, either directly or indirectly, and the principals, directors, officers, owners, members, representatives, employees, agents, consultants, accountants, and attorneys of these same entities.

10. "Intel's Website" means the Internet website having the home page with the URL <http://www.intel.com/>.

11. In the event any information is withheld on a claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product immunity, or any other privilege from disclosure, identify in the response to the interrogatory: (a) the date of the information; (b) the source of the information; (c) names and addresses of all persons to whom that information was disclosed; and (d) the general subject matter of the information. To the extent such information is contained within a document for which a claim of privilege has been made, you must also provide a privileged document list within the time set out in the Scheduling Order.

12. You are under a duty to supplement all responses to these requests to include information acquired after service of the responses, even if such responses were correct when first provided.

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

1. Separately for each agreement or amendment to an agreement (collectively, "Agreement") referred to in RFA 1.1 through 1.154, admit that:

- a) the document is a true and correct copy of an Agreement to which Intel currently is or previously has been a party;
- b) Intel entered into the Agreement with the other company, companies, or persons that are identified in the Agreement as parties to the Agreement;

ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY

- c) Intel entered into the Agreement on or about the date indicated for the signatures in the Agreement or the effective date set forth in the Agreement;
- d) the Agreement was signed by the persons whose names appear on the signature lines of the Agreement or by their designees;
- e) the person or persons who signed the Agreement on behalf of Intel were authorized by Intel to do so; and
- f) the Agreement concerns a matter within the scope of Intel's employment of the person or persons who signed the Agreement on behalf of Intel, and was signed by that person or those persons during the existence of that employment.
